

Words From the President

Great flying weather is back!

Lee will update you about the October's rally in his report. We had three pilots and three static airplanes. Two Vans aircraft, Roy's RV-6 and Tom's RV-10 were used to give instruction in pre-flight check lists to the Scouts before they flew.

The pilots briefing was held in hanger 15 and the ops was held out of hanger 20. Although we had a very light crowd of young eagles, it went well. Good job to our team and a thank you to all.

November's meeting will be held at the terminal conference room. There are no planned speakers, but that may change by the meeting time. We do have officer elections though. There will be updates on the following subjects: Scholarships funds program, the 337 war bird restoration and Diana's airplane.

There will be a short briefing concerning the upcoming December Young Eagles rally. I can't make it more import, that we will need all pilots and ground crew to help at this rally!

Don't forget ADS-B deadline is closing in fast. The Feds say there are going to be NO extensions, period.

Burgers and dogs at hanger 20 after the meeting. A lot of us have been out of town in October with family responsibilities.

See you on the 9th. Be safe out there.

Young Eagles Report

Lee Miller Young Eagles Coordinator

The Young Eagle Rally in October was smaller than anticipated but managed to get eight youths flown. Seven were Boy Scouts and the eighth was Zack Pereira, the son of our newest member Aimee.

There was an introduction to the aircraft control functions by Roy Carson and Tom Valenzia. Pilots flying youth were Scott Winkelman, Ron Santos, and Doug StPierre. Jennette Miller kept track of certificates for the flights.

Although it was the first rally for the acting Coordinator (Lee Miller), things went fairly smoothly and everyone who came to fly got to.

Following the YE portion of the meeting, and a brief business meeting, the scout's adult supervision served up some bar-b-que along with all the fixin's.

Much was learned by the Coordinator and crew that will help make future rallies even more instructive and enjoyable for the youth and less stressful for the rest of us.

My thanks to all those who helped out.
